

Program Name: Diploma in E&TC Engineering

Vision

- To provide quality education for developing rural youth into skillful Electronics & Telecommunication Engineer to serve the needs of industry & society

Mission

M1: To establish the learning environment for better understanding of Electronics & Telecommunication engineering concept through workshops

M2: To develop professional & technical skills of students by internship training & expert lecture

M3: To prepare the diploma graduates who serves to fulfill the needs of industry and society by Industrial visit

The Electronics & Telecommunication Engineering students are expected to achieve the following defined PEOs.

- PEO 1: To develop an ability in students to apply technical skills & solve problems in Electronics & Telecommunication Engineering
- PEO 2: To Apply advanced Electronics and Telecommunication Engineering technologies for resolving needs of society & industry
- PEO 3: To Work individually and in team with professional attitude & societal responsibility